Your complaint is important to us and should be made in the first instance to your usual Marsh contact. Alternatively you can address your complaint to:

Complaint Process

We will aim to resolve your complaint on the spot or if this is not possible within three business days of receipt. If you are satisfied with our response we will send you a confirmation.

If we can't resolve your complaint straightaway, within five business days of receiving it we will send you an acknowledgement and where possible fully resolve your complaint.

An employee, who was not involved in the subject matter of the complaint, will investigate your complaint. We will provide their details, giving their name and job title.

We will always aim to resolve your complaint as soon as possible. When we have investigated your complaint, we will send you a written response.

If we can't resolve your complaint within 4 weeks, we will contact you with the reason why.

If we can't resolve your complaint within 8 weeks, we will send you:

- 1) a resolution; or
- 2) a response which:
 - explains that we are still not in a position to make a response;
 - provides reasons for the further delay and tells you when we are likely to provide a response; and if appropriate
 - provides details of referral rights to the Financial Ombudsman Service if you are dissatisfied with the delay.

If you are unhappy with our resolution to your complaint, you may be eligible to refer your complaint to Lloyd's of London and/or the Ombudsman.

You may if you wish, refer your complaint to Lloyd's. Lloyd's will investigate the matter and provide a final response. Lloyd's contact details are as follows:
